

Matthew 25: "Lord, when did I see you?"

A 5-part Speaker Series focused on seeing the face of our Lord in "the least of these". As Jesus stands with the prisoner, the poor, the hungry and the marginalized, we seek to join Him in kinship with others this Lent. Tuesday evenings, 7:30 – 9:00 in the Church Hall

2/20/18 - Criminal Justice Ministry: Executive Director Anthony D'Agostino & special guest

CJM has served those impacted by the criminal justice system since 1979. From offering services to incarcerated individuals to providing reentry programs for those returning to the St. Louis area, CJM seeks to serve the needs of the most vulnerable without judgment.

2/27/18 - US Legal Solutions, LLC (Immigration Attorneys): Founder and Principal Kenneth Schmitt & special guest

Understanding the realities and complexities of our immigration system is the first step in developing an informed Christian perspective. This session will help us separate fact from fiction and find Christ in the faces of so many in our midst.

3/6/18 –LinkSTL: Putting the Neighbor back in Neighborhood

As a place-based community organization, LinkStL, Inc. focuses on linking people to opportunities in disinvested neighborhoods. Our goal is to build capacity within our neighborhood, so that the community will continue to flourish as a place of choice for housing, businesses, schools, organizations, and fun!

3/13/18 - Circle of Concern Food Pantry

At Circle, feeding families is just the beginning. They offer financial support, scholarships, job mentoring, children's programs and holiday events. All of these efforts work together to allow clients to use their limited resources to regain their financial footing. Come learn about the needs and solutions in our own back yard!

3/20/18 –Faith and For the Sake Of All

"For the Sake Of All" is the 2014 report from a landmark study done by Washington University, which explores the health and wellbeing of African Americans in St. Louis and why it matters to everyone. "Faith & FSOA" is an initiative to engage faith communities in understanding and responding to this powerful study.

Prepare your heart for an Easter full of compassion and hope!

“Jesus tells us what the ‘protocol’ is, on which we will be judged. It is the one we read in chapter 25 of Matthew’s Gospel: I was hungry, I was thirsty, I was in prison, I was sick, I was naked and you helped me, clothed me, visited me, took care of me. Whenever we do this to one of our brothers, we do this to Jesus. Caring for our neighbor; for those who are poor, who suffer in body and in soul, for those who are in need. This is the touchstone.”
